Project itinerary

Your time here in Bali with young children will be to help further their education, so that they may grow up to become successful and ambitious young adults within their local economy. Arriving on Sunday, you'll have plenty of time to relax ahead of your exciting week!

Mandatory Orientation Day

On the Monday of your first week at this location, you will join our orientation day, to familiarise yourself with the surroundings as well as local culture. Your programme will continue as usual from Tuesday onward throughout the rest of the week.

Orientation Schedule - Monday

- Welcome, introduction to Indonesia, House rules, Code of
- Conduct and handling of documents
- Culture Lesson
- Lunch
- Project meeting and Preparation

Tuesday to Friday

On a typical day during this Volunteer English Teaching project in Ubud, Bali, your schedule will rise early for breakfast. Thereafter, you can work on developing lesson plans for each day for a couple of hours. After lunch, you will head to your project where your students will be eagerly waiting for you! Finally, once your teaching day is done, you will return home for dinner and a relaxing evening.

During your project, you will be expected to

- Assist children with self-confidence and assertive behaviour
- Improve each child's verbal and written English.
- Design efficient lesson plans with your program coordinator and other volunteers.
- Adapt your teaching methods to the needs of the children

Evenings and Weekends

Your evenings and weekends are free to explore Ubud or simply relax with new friends back at your accommodation. Many of our volunteers enjoy mixing with their new friends during the week and plan their weekend adventures together!

Please note: This schedule can be changed and/or amended depending on weather conditions, local conditions and unforeseen circumstances.

Places to Visit

Here are some of our top must-see destinations ...

The Gili Islands

Here, you'll find small resorts and huts for tourists looking to get away from the bustle of Ubud. In fact, the islands are a popular destination for snorkelling and diving due to its abundant marine life.

Nusa Lembongan

This is an island paradise with the clearest waters that you will ever see! Surfing, diving and snorkeling and amongst the most popular activities that visitors can enjoy.

Lovina

Lovina is located between the Bedugul mountains and the sea, and is popular for dolphin watching, trekking, hot springs and its gorgeous coral reefs.

Sanur

This is a stunning stretch of beach in Southeast Bali that contains villa resorts and Zen Villas. Historically, it was used as the landing site for the Dutch invasion troops during the Dutch invasion in 1906 as well as being the entry point into Bali for the Japanese during WWII.

Kuta

Kuta is a beach known for its surfing opportunities and party atmosphere, and is a popular destination for our volunteers over the course of their stay!

Uluwatu

This extraordinary temple was built at the edge of a 70-metre high cliff at the edge of the sea and is inhabited by monkeys.
