Project itinerary

You'll arrive on Sunday, and have a day to relax and settle into your new surroundings; naturally, we want you to be fresh for your first day! Time zones are not too much of an issue here, as there's only a 2 hour difference between the UK and Cape Town.

Weekly Schedule

Monday to Friday

The volunteering hours are from 05.00 -17.00 (You are not expected to work the full hours unless you would like to!). Your schedule will be as follows:

- Breakfast at the volunteer accommodation
- Cheetah conservation volunteering
- Lunch
- Cheetah conservation volunteering
- Travel back to the Volunteer accommodation
- Dinner

Daily Activities

These are the usual daily activities that will be required of you as a cheetah conservation volunteer:

Evenings and Weekends

After a rewarding day as a Cheetah Conservation Volunteer, you can choose to explore the area or simply relax with your new-found friends back at your accommodation. Many of our volunteers enjoy mixing with their new volunteer friends during the week and plan bigger weekend adventures together!

Places to Visit

Cape Town, the famous port city of South Africa, lies at the foot of Table Mountain. Although its a small city, Cape Town boasts of dynamic culture and vast natural expanses. Here are some of our top must-sees!

- Table Mountains by arial Cable Car
- Drive to Chapman’s Peak
- Victoria and Alfred Waterfront
- Boulders Beach Penguin Colony

- Cape Point Nature Reserve

Please note:
Cost of transport to project locations is not included, but will usually be around £1.50 per day. Additional excursions to sightseeing areas must be arranged separately and are not included in the programme.

This schedule can be changed depending on weather conditions and unforeseen circumstances.
