Project itinerary

Plan for the perfect, rewarding holiday on our Environmental Conservation Volunteer project in Thailand. Here you can discover conservation techniques, and take home with you, a wealth of information to help you live with a more eco-aware approach to life.

Arrival

If this is your first week, you will be transferred directly from Bangkok to Hua Hin upon arrival. Depending on your previous week's program, you will be transferred to Hua Hin after brunch, with dinner at the Hua Hin centre.

Mandatory Orientation Day

On the Monday of your first week at this location, you will join our orientation day, to familiarise yourself with the surroundings as well as local culture. Your programme will continue as usual from Tuesday onward throughout the rest of the week.

Orientation Schedule

- Introduction meeting, House rules, Setting Expectations, Health and Safety Advice and handling of documents.

Evenings and Weekends

After a day of volunteering, you can choose to head out to the beach, or take part in the activities we provide our guests. Many of our volunteers enjoy mixing with their new volunteer friends through the week and travel further afield at the weekends!

Please note: This schedule can be changed depending on weather conditions and unforeseen circumstances.

Places to Visit

Hua Hin is a lively fisherman-town and popular tourist destination, and it has a lot to offer besides just sunbathing, snorkelling and swimming at its golden beaches. Not only are there plenty of seafood restaurants and other eateries to choose from, but visitors can also enjoy golf, spas, shops, markets (including a popular night market), and Hua Hin's Vana Nava water park. We recommend you also visit Khao Tekiab, a mountain at the end of the beach with a temple atop that overlooks the sea.

In addition, Hua Hin is surrounded by beautiful national parks and you might decide to go slightly further afield to explore the likes of the Pa La-U Waterfall, located 60 km west of Hua Hin on the south side of the Kaeng Krachan National Park. Alternatively, 45 km to the south of Hua Hin is the mystical Phraya Nakhon cave for the more adventurous!
