Evening Activities

To balance your volunteer work, the local team organizes weekly social and cultural activities:

- Wednesday: Movie night at 19:30
- Thursday: Special dinner together with volunteers and the team
- Village Ceremony Days: Participate in a traditional Balinese ceremony (requires sarong & selendang). Please note that, according to Balinese customs, women who are menstruating are not permitted to enter temple areas.

These activities may be adjusted depending on weather, local traditions, and unforeseen circumstances.

Weekends

Your weekends are free to explore Bali at your own pace. From waterfalls and rice terraces to temples and cultural markets, Ubud’s central location makes it easy to find adventure. Popular options include:

- Temple hopping in Ubud and surrounding villages
- Trekking through rice terraces and river valleys
- Visiting art galleries and yoga studios in town
- Exploring waterfalls and hidden jungle spots nearby
- Day trips to Canggu, Sanur, or Seminyak for beach time

Places to Visit

Ubud, located in the lush highlands of central Bali, is known as the island's cultural and spiritual heart. Surrounded by rice terraces, rivers, and forested valleys, it's the perfect base to experience both nature and tradition. Here are some highlights near your accommodation:

- Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary (10 minutes) – A mystical forest filled with ancient temples and playful long-tailed macaques.
- Campuhan Ridge Walk (15 minutes) – A scenic walking trail with sweeping views of valleys and rice fields.
- Tegallalang Rice Terraces (20 minutes) – Bali's iconic stepped rice fields, perfect for a sunrise or sunset stroll.
- Goa Gajah – Elephant Cave (15 minutes) – An ancient archaeological site with rock carvings, meditation caves, and bathing pools.
- Tirta Empul Temple (30 minutes) – A holy water temple where locals and visitors take part in purification rituals.
- Gunung Kawi Temple (30 minutes) – A beautiful temple complex with shrines carved into stone cliffs.
- Tegenungan Waterfall (25 minutes) – A dramatic waterfall just outside Ubud, great for photos and a refreshing dip.
- Saraswati Temple (10 minutes) – A picturesque water temple in the heart of Ubud, known for its lotus pond and evening dance performances.
