Project itinerary

As an English Teaching Volunteer, you will have lots of freedom to use your own skills with your students as you give them a good foundation in English. Creativity is a must here, as is the ability to have fun with these children, who are keen to learn!

Mandatory Orientation Day

On the Monday of your first week at this location, you will join our orientation day, to get used to your new surroundings and local culture. Your programme will continue as usual from Tuesday onward throughout the rest of the week.

Schedule

- Introduction meeting, House rules, Setting Expectations, Health and Safety Advice and handling of documents.
- Chilean Do's and Don'ts, Chilean Culture Lessons and Spanish language Classes.
- Tour around the compound and local area; where to find local shops, and arrange a sim-card if necessary.
- Lunch
- Village Walking Tour.

Please note: This schedule can be changed and/or amended depending on weather conditions, local conditions and unforeseen circumstances.

Evenings and Weekends

Your free time is yours to do as you wish. Feel free to head off exploring further afield, or simply hang back with other volunteers at our accommodation.

Places to Visit

There are a lot of things for you to do over the weekends or on your free days. You can explore some amazing waterfalls, or even make your way to the Andes, hire some skis and hit the snow. Since the Andean Mountains are not that far away from Coihueco, it's also the perfect trip to take over the weekend.

If you don't feel like skiing, there are plenty of great trekking routes to take in the beautiful scenery around you. Further, you'll find national parks and hot springs close to Coihueco for you to explore.

And if you want to travel further afield, why not visit Santiago, Chile's capital, over the weekend? It usually takes about 6 hours by mini-van or bus from Coihueco and is a great way to see the country!
