Project itinerary

You will spend your day here shadowing veterinary doctors and may be called upon to assist them and to also go out onto the streets of Kathmandu to identify and rescue dogs that need treatment. Consequently, you may find that tasks vary depending on the needs at the time. However, the main ones consist of, but are not limited to:

- Rescuing and treating injured street dogs
- Sterilisation of female dogs
- Help in feeding stray dogs
- Cleaning their enclosures
- Walking the dogs, cleaning and bathing them, etc.

Mandatory Orientation Day

On the Monday of your first week at this location, you will join our orientation day to get accustomed to your surroundings. Thereafter, your Animal Rehabilitation Volunteer Programme, here in Nepal, will continue as usual from Tuesday onward throughout the rest of the week.

Orientation Day Schedule (Monday)

- Welcoming Ritual – Puja to the Gods & goddess and name-giving ceremony with ice-breaking activities

Evenings and Weekends

At the end of your day as an Animal Rehabilitation Volunteer here in Kathmandu, you can choose to explore the area or simply relax with new friends back at your accommodation. In fact, many of our volunteers enjoy mixing with their new volunteer friends during the week and plan their weekend adventures together!

Places to Visit

The highlight of Kathmandu has long been Durbar Square, the largest of the palace squares in the three royal cities and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Temples and monuments of varying shapes, sizes, styles, and faiths can be found here. Thamel is also a tourist hotspot, where shoppers can find Nepalese, Tibetan and Indian artefacts, wood carvings, handicraft and unique clothing. In addition, there are also several malls where you can find all the basics you will need whilst here. Furthermore, if dining out is your thing, you can have a dish from a different country every night, with a plethora of restaurants serving local and international dishes!
